Stamping Ground.

Miss Sallie Lindsey is visiting Miss Jennie Perry, at Midway.

What next? It is now said that the bees are destroying tobacco plants in this region. Some weeks ago we read that grasshoppers were doing likewise. The whole insect tribe must be demoralized.

We regret to hear that Mr. R. S. Sprake received a telegraphic message stating that his nephew, Mr. R. Smith Parker, of Carroll county, had been killed by the accidental discharge of a shot gun. Several of the family attended the funeral.

Mrs. Bradford is rebuilding her house on Main street, which was destroyed by the big fire in February.

Messrs. B. Stone & Bro., our excellent millers, have had their grain damaged this season by rats to a larger extent than ever known. They assess the damage at about $1,500.

The tobacco plants have about all been set in this section. With seasonable weather from now on there will be a good crop raised.

Herman Sutton, of this place, enlisted in the regular army last week, and was sent to join the Third Cavalry at Fort Meyer, Va.

YACOB.

I wish to say that I feel under last- ing obligations for what Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has done for our family. We have used it in so many cases of coughs, lung troubles and whooping cough, and it has always given the most perfect satisfaction, we feel greatly indebted to the manufacturers of this remedy and wish them to please accept our hearty thanks.—Respectfully, Mrs. S. Doty, Des Moines, Iowa. For sale by J. W. Gayle, druggist.

Happy Ridge.

Sunday-school at Antioch Sunday morning. Now all of you that are interested in it come out and take a part and make the school a great success.

Mrs. Tom Goins is on the sick list this week.

Miss Laura Penn, of Eminence, who has been visiting friends and relatives in Harvieland, has returned home.

Mr. R. S. Dinkle, of Catlettsburg, and Mr. Howell Scott attended the Sunday school at Harvieland Sunday evening last.

Mr. Thomas Lenox, of Jetts, escorted Miss Ida Semones to church

Saturday night. They also attended church at Lebanon Sunday.

Messrs. Luther Pence and Arthur Roberts were out driving Sunday evening. I guess they called on poor old Tuck. How is he, boys, or will you have to come back next Sunday and find out?

Mr. Mack McDaniel, of Louisville, is visiting his mother, Mrs. E. W. McDaniel just now.

Misses Stella and Lucy Peiffer, accompanied by Messrs. Theodore Bryan and Joe Peiffer, of Tioga, attended Church at the new Methodist Church, near Harvieland, Sunday last.

Lucky was Mr. Ira Semones to get the $50 reward for Miss E. M.'s lost Pearl.

What has become of the Pet Pig? Come again, don't let this warm weather get away with you. And you, Sweetest of Sweet, I saw where some one guessed you had soured. Come, now, there are too many sweet things to eat without eating lemons and pickles.

Mrs. Ida Capless, who has been visiting Mrs. Martha Lewis, has returned home.

PAPA'S ONLY CHILD.

Peaks Mill.

Hot, hotter hottest.

Candidates are thicker than hops at present.

Mrs. L. Hannen is on the sick list.

Mrs. Rebecca Harrod, of Swallowfield, was in the Mill the first of the week, the guest of her mother, Mrs. L. Hannen.

Mrs. Albert Heckensmith is on the sick list.

Mrs. Talbott and daughter, Miss Bertha, of Frankfort, returned home last Saturday after a week's visit at Mr. Frank Bacon's.

Mrs. John Compton and children, of Cleveland, Ohio, are here, the guests of relatives.

Mr. Charles Jackson and wife passed through the Mill the first of the week.

Mrs. Penn Haydon, of Cincinnati, Ohio, is here visiting her parents, Mr. Geo. Bacon and wife.

Clark was out driving with his best girl last Tuesday evening. Look out boys, Miss Ella is good looking and very attractive.

Mr. Curtis, the photographer, of Eminence, has located here, where he is ready to do good work at reasonably low prices. We wish him all success possible.

THE NEW WERNER EDITION OF

THE ENCYCLOPEDIA BRITANNICA

The Pilot

knows just how to steer a vessel to bring it safely through the shoals and out into the open. Just so the Encyclopedia Britannica is the one absolutely reliable guide for the voyage of life. One cannot go wrong if its teachings are followed. It tells the mistakes men have made; how others have succeeded and why. An intelligent man gets good from the experiences of others and steers clear of the rocks they ran against. The very presence of the Encyclopedia Britannica in a house gives the place an intellectual tone. A library of thousands of volumes does not offer such an opportunity for successful home study and development as this masterpiece of literature. There is no more instructive reading on earth than that contained in its 30 volumes. To a life whose current runs toward the future, this great work is indispensable. Just now you can secure the
